Early History

The history of the family goes back to Switzerland in the mid 1600's. It starts with Benedict Bullinger, also spelled Bollinger. The name comes from the French word Boulangerie meaning baker. In these times spelling of names was inaccurate because of the poor level of education, and so the names could actually change spelling from one generation to the next. The Germanic form tends to spell Bullinger with the 'u' but some forms can be found with an 'o'. The French usually keep both vowels and use only one 'l'. Benedict Bullinger was from the town of Weid in the canton (county) Bern. This area had a few towns named Weid scattered throughout it, so knowing exactly where he came from is hard to know. This area was heavily populated with Germanic people with the French portion of Switzerland just a little to the west.

The main trade or occupation of the area that Benedict Bullinger lived in was linen weaving in the mid 1600's to late 1700's. It is believed that Benedict's wife Maria was a common law wife, and that he may have had a brother named Jakob Bullinger who was also born in a town named Weid.

Jakob was a linen weaver and had moved to Iggelheim early in his life. Johann Leonard Bullinger the son of Benedict also moved to Iggelheim at a young age and had the same occupation of linen weaving. Christian Bullinger, one of Leonard's sons, switched his occupation to farming. Johann Christian, the son of Christian, also farmed for an occupation. Farming in Iggelheim was good because of its location in the Rhine valley. After Johann Christian our ancestors started to take up many different trades. Johannes was a shoe maker and a forest caretaker. Johann Jakob was a farmer and also ran a General Store. Then there was Philipp Jakob who did farming, ran the store, and was also a barber. Johannes (John) moved to the U.S. and became a farmer.

Iggelheim

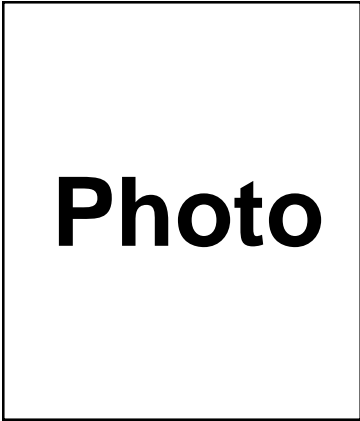

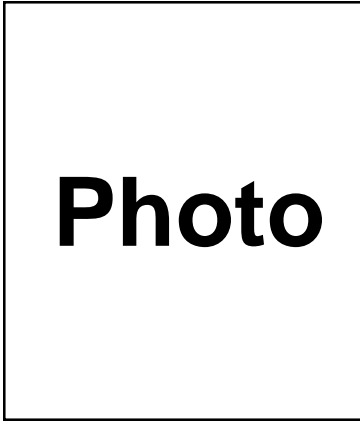

Iggelheim is located in the Rhine-Pfalz, this area was owned or controlled by many different countries and rulers between the 1600's and the late 1800's. When Leonard moved to Iggelheim it was under the broad control of the Holy Roman Empire. Which meant that they were probably under the jurisdiction of the Bishopric of Spyer, just 10 miles away. It remained that way until about 1786, when it came under the rule of the Wittelsbach, who also ruled Bavaria. The area it was in was then called the Palatinate, meaning under the rule of the Palace of Bavaria. By 1802 it was under the control of the French. Many battles were fought in the general area of Iggelheim between 1788 and 1795. It remained under French control until the treaty adjustments in 1814 and 1815 at which time it was returned back to Bavaria and became part of the German confederation. In 1871 Bavaria formally joined the German Empire.

Church in Iggelheim

Johannes & Anastasia Bullinger

John was born May 6, 1868 in Iggelheim, Rhein-Pfalz, Germany. In 1890 John, his mother, and his sister came to the Mayville area of North Dakota, and John worked on a farm. In 1891 he married Anastasia (Anna) Jenerwein born Dec. 25 1867 in Hallene, Salzburg, Austria and had emigrated to Grand Forks just three days prior th the wedding.

Marriage Certificate

They were married on Sept. 15, 1891 in Grand Forks. They had met each other in Germany while working together in a factory. John and Anna farmed near Mayville for two years, then came to Bottineau County and homesteaded in Whitby Township in 1900. They lived in a sod hut on the farm until they could build a house. John and Anna learned English from their children as they went to school. John committed suicide on July 31,

Death Certificate

1915 by a gunshot to the head. It has been said by some of his sons that he had been an alcoholic and was extremely depressed at the time of the suicide. Anna and her children remained on the farm until 1922 when she moved into Gradena. During Christmas as many of her sons and daughters with their children would go to Grandma Anna's house for it was not only Christmas but also Grandma Anna's birthday. There she would baked many goods like ginger bread, molasses bars, puddings, and many other wonderful things to eat. She would knitt socks for her sons and son-in-laws, also mittens for her daughters and daughter-in-laws. She hung these on the Christmas tree along with gingerbread man cookies for the grandchildren. She died on Sept. 30, 1954. The farm is now operated by their descendants.

Shortly there after he began acquiring farm land, and in 1933 became active in administering the Agricultural Adjustment Act. In 1937 he quit the oil business and moved to Bottineau in 1941 where he served the AAA until 1947. Mae knitted sweaters and dresses for her daughters. She also did a lot of knitting during WWII for the war effort. After the oil business, Herman concentrated on his farming interests. He and Mae lived in San Luis Obispo, CA. from 1960 to 1969, but then returned to Bottineau. Mae died in 1974. *Mae and Herman were the parents of three children, DeElla, Lorraine, and Arloween.
